

ODDITIES IN THE NEWS ALL OVER THE WORLD

When a number of young women sought shelter from a shower in the University of Pennsylvania gymnasium at Philadelphia they wandered into the swimming pool through mistake.

Their unexpected appearance in the door sent several students who had been diving scurrying to cover, but Charles R. Saunders was so startled he was paralyzed, fell down a flight of stairs and is expected to die.

SHOCK OF A SUICIDE RESTORED HIS VOICE.

When Howard Roberts, of Turner, Me., heard of the suicide of his brother he had been dumb for two years.

The shock caused temporary paralysis. Then he began to whisper, and now his voice has been completely restored.

SENTENCED TO 30 BATHS; MUST TAKE THEM IN JAIL.

"Thirty days and a bath every day" was the sentence of a Yonkers court for Jacob Dash, sixteen years old. The boy's father said he was so lazy he wouldn't undress or bathe and had been wearing a shirt six months.

TWO SCARECROWS ALMOST CAUSE AN AUTO TRAGEDY.

To avoid hitting two figures in the road near Port Jervis a chauffeur driving Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cushing and two guests from Pennsylvania came near sending the auto over an embankment. The supposed human beings were scarecrows placed there by three boys, who were caught and spanked. Mrs. Cushman is laid up from the fright.

WALKED AWAY AFTER SEVENTY-FOOT FALL.

After young Carmel Corallo, No. 1444 Herkimer street, Brooklyn, fell seventy feet from the top of a gas tank at Wythe avenue and North Twelfth street he got up and started away.

A policeman detained him until an ambulance arrived, but the surgeon could find no injuries except a few bruises.

DEAD CHINAMEN'S HAIR FOR AMERICAN WOMEN'S "RATS."

A ton of hair taken from dead Chinamen has arrived on shipboard at Boston from China.

It is to be used in making "rats" for the women of America.

TAKES OUT COPYRIGHT ON HIS NEW RESIDENCE.

F. N. Martin, a prominent man of Spokane, has had the plans of his new home, which is unique, copyrighted to prevent imitations.

The place is on the order of a Swiss bungalow and, so far as known, is the only copyrighted home on the coast.

A Remarkable Assortment of Handsome Summer Effects at About 1/2

What They Are Worth.

Here is an assortment of Taffeta and Foulard Silk Dresses that bids fair to create the most sincere shopping enthusiasm in this department in a long time. These habiliments are made up from an overplus of silks a prominent maker wanted to close out before too late, and we bought the lot at a ridiculous figure. Naturally, the dresses are superior in every way—materials, trimmings, workmanship and cut being out-of-the-ordinary and positively worth twice to-morrow's price. There is an excellent choice—range, embracing stripes as well as plain colors. We illustrate one of the charming models offered. The value is bound to find quick favor with economical shoppers; early choosing is wise. 10.75

79c Fancy Silk, 49c.

FANCY TAFFETA AND LOUISINE, all pure silks, 19 inches wide, in stripes, checks and a large variety of combinations. A material eminently suited to the making of an effective summer dress. A positive 79c. value; Thursday, only 49c.

15c Fancy Colored Batiste, 7c

The price tells the reason why it is necessary to place 5,000 yards of this fabric on sale. Nothing less would fill the demand. This beautiful Batiste is in the season's newest styles and colorings—effects particularly adapted to women's and children's dresses for summer wear. The value is positively 15c per yard; Thursday only (none C. O. D.), yard, 7c.

79c. and $1 Mohair Sicilian, 49c.

54-INCH IMPORTED FANCY MOHAIR SICILIANS, in all the latest stripes; also plain weaves in all the leading shades; non-crushable and dust shedding. Regularly 79c. and $1.00 per yard. Thursday, only 49c.

Most Unusual Offering of Real Irish Crochet Neckwear

AN importer of these beautiful and desirable laces has turned over to us a considerable surplus to dispose of, which we shall do, beginning tomorrow,

At a Third Less Than Regular Prices

Real Irish Crochet Lace is very rarely to be obtained under-price, hence this offering is of particular interest. It consists of lace collars and chemisettes of various styles; also chemisette coat and band sets, in many rich and handsome designs. The prices are less than the laces would sell for at wholesale.

Stock Collars, 65c. to $1.75. Coat Collars, $3.50 to $7.50.
Round Collars, $1.70 to $15. Chemisettes, $3.50 to $7.50.
Band Sets (collar and cuffs), $1.65 to $6.
Chemisette Sets (chemisette and cuffs), $4.50 to $9.
Coat Sets (collar and cuffs), $3.10 to $9.50. Rotunda, Old Bldg.

Four New Models of Pretty WAISTS—Just In

But that is only half the story:

Three Models at $2, ought to be $3.50
One Model at $3.50, ought to be $3.75

The difference between price and value expresses the maker's anxiety to sell—the waists are fresh and charming and just out of their boxes. Descriptions:

- 1st Model, at $2—Batiste, small yoke of Valenciennes, with embroidery and fine plait. Medallions in center.
- 2d Model, at $2—Fine lawn, with strip of needlework from shoulder, in yoke form, down center of waist. Rows of Valenciennes insertion; plaited back, trimmed sleeves.
- 3d Model, at $2—Sheer lawn, pointed yoke of strips of Valenciennes and fine lace and embroidery. Plaited front, with embroidery stripes on each side; lace collar and cuffs.
- 4th Model, at $2.50—Extremely pretty waists of batiste, with entire yoke of flit and Valenciennes lace; back of cluster of plaits and lace; trimmed sleeves—very elaborate.

If You Are Perplexed, Consult The Wedding Silver Shop

THE perfunctory wedding present gives no pleasure to the sender or to the recipient. Have the gift individual, characteristic, if you can. If your ingenuity fails, let the Wanamaker Silver Shop help you. It abounds in beautiful new things in sterling silver. Quaint Dutch Silver, too—but that's another story. Suggestions:

Tea Sets, $40, $50, $60, $70, $80, set of five pieces.
Coffee Sets, $40 to $62 set of three pieces.
Asparagus Servers, $5.50 to $19.25.
Berry Spoons, $4.75 to $6.25.
Gravy Ladles, $2.50, $3.75, $4.50.
Salad Sets, $9 to $18 a set.
Tomato Servers, $4.25 to $6.
Small Cases of Table Silver, 24 pieces, one drawer, $1, $4, $5, 30 pieces, $7.
Main floor, Old Building.

"La Jeunesse" is the Newest And Prettiest of Summer Coats

PAQUIN evolved the model—we have had it reproduced in several different materials that are specially desirable for Summer wear. The coats are made in graceful Empire style, with full loose back correspond, and single-shawl collar of Manchuria silk, cuffs to breasted front, with buttons showing through. The illustration shows two of them:

On the left—
"La Jeunesse" Coats of French serge, at $16.75
In navy blue, with light blue silk collar.
On the right—
"La Jeunesse" Coats of novelty striped serge at $15
In shades of blue, tan and green, with collars of contrasting color.
The same model, of heavy linen, with light blue or brown collar and cuffs, at $7.
Third floor, Old Building.

Embroidered Robe Patterns

$3, Usually $5. $10, Usually $20 and $22.50

OUR former actual selling prices determine the valuations of these attractive Summer robes. The skirts need only to be adjusted as to length, and to have a back seam run, to be ready to wear. There is plenty of material for the waist, with trimming to match the skirt. Both groups offer remarkable values at present prices:

At $3, formerly $5—Robe Patterns of excellent batiste, with skirts handsomely trimmed with lace and embroidery insertion.
At $10, formerly $20 and $22.50—Beautiful Robes of fine lawn, richly trimmed with panels of lace and embroidery; fine workmanship in every particular.
Also a group of $4 Hand-embroidered Waist Patterns at $2.25. Imported, in several pretty designs and colorings, including pink and blue. Each pattern boxed.

And these two special offerings of WHITE GOODS BY THE YARD:
69-inch Princess Muslin, 15c a yard; sheer quality, for party dresses. A small lot at a third of its original price.
39-inch Lingerie Batiste, for fine waists. 18c a yard, instead of 25c. Third floor, Old Building.

Early Summer Windfalls in Stylish Dress Materials

KEEPING our eyes open, when manufacturers and importers alike have finished their summer season and are busy with Fall plans, brings many a choice lot of Dress Goods to us at much below par. Then, the same spirit of preparation moving us, we pick out other desirable groups from our regular stock, to go also at lessened prices. Thus chances like this occur:

$1.25 All-wool Black Panama Cloth, $1 Yd.
75c and 85c All-wool Suitings, 50c and 55c Yd.
Savings of 25 per cent. on a fine, staple fabric. All-wool, intricate finish; fine for travelling suits and separate skirts. 44 in. wide.
$1.50 All-Silk Checked Voile, 55c Yd.
$1.25 Fancy Suitings, 75c Yd.
The end of a special purchase that we have been selling until now at 75c a yard. Fine, silky quality, in self checks, entirely in brown, navy and light blue and black.
Attractive light-weight mixtures in tan and gray shades, also checks, herringbone weaves and self-striped bolles in plain colors.
Stylish, summery checked and plaid effects in black-and-white and grays, also broken plaids in various colors.
Second floor, Old Building.

Women's White Serge Suits At $16.75, instead of $25

ONLY duty just in from the tailor; made of fine white serge. Two models of the stylish "Princeton" coat—single and double-breasted, with semi fitted back, coat collar, turnover cuffs, and lined throughout with satin. Full side-plaited skirts, with deep bias fold. Cool and altogether charming Summer suits, that a little earlier in the season would have sold for $25, tomorrow at $16.75 each. Third floor, Old Building.

Men's Fancy $25 to $35 SUMMER SUITS at $18.50

Tomorrow Morning Starts One of the Great Clothing Events of the Season

WANAMAKER STANDARD in every respect—material, tailoring, style. The majority of the suits came from one of our regular makers, and we should have sold them at $25 to $35, if we had not been able to buy them for much less than usual. The rest are from our regular Summer stock. All the suits are this season's materials and make, and sufficient to give splendid choosing to 375 men, including complete size range in "stouts" and "regulars" from 36 to 46.

The fabrics are the handsomest of the Summer—cassimeres, worsteds and chevots, in cool grays and stylish browns, in medium and dark shades. The coats are light weight and half-lined. Here is the exact schedule, as the sale starts tomorrow

170 Suits of Regular $25 Grade
